- FBIS recruiting for language-capable officers has picked up; FBIS received 23 responses to an ad for Russian S&T capability run in selected U.S. newspapers on 3 June. Moreover, 18 Arabic linguists were tested recently, with 7 now in initial stages of processing. FBIS officers are planning a number of recruiting trips for the autumn to search for critical language needs.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER

WEEKLY REPORT FOR THE DCI

21 September 1984

1985

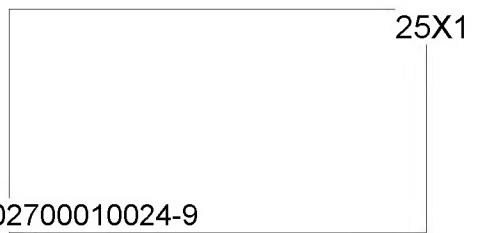

- The Congress is nearing agreement on the major issues impeding progress on the 1985 Defense Authorization/Appropriation Bills. Current strategy appears to be to reach agreement on these issues and incorporate the results in the Continuing Resolution. If this is accomplished, the Continuing Resolution could serve as the 1985 Defense Appropriation Bill.

25X1

1986

- The examiners from the Office of Management and Budget and the Intelligence Community Staff will conduct joint hearings on our 1986 budget request here at Headquarters beginning Monday, 1 October and continuing through 18 October.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: Charles A. Briggs
Director, Office of Legislative Liaison
SUBJECT: Weekly Report

Items of Interest

1. Diplomatic Reciprocity

Senator Huddleston plans to amend the Continuing Resolution to express a "sense of the Congress" on the number and privileges of diplomats from countries that engage in espionage against the U.S. The amendment would call for reciprocal numbers of such foreign and U.S. diplomats.

2. FOIA

Due to a lot of good work by a lot of people, we appear to have a good chance of achieving our FOIA Bill this session. It passed the House easily.

3. Drug Czar Legislation

As the House and Senate Bills move toward Conference, we are working to get language protecting the Director's authorities. Chairman Boland has written a strong letter supporting us.

4. Computer Fraud Legislation

This legislation seems to be hung up in the Senate, but the problem does not involve us. If a bill passes, we expect to be protected.

5. Beirut Bombing

Senator Biden asked for and received a briefing on the Beirut bombing [redacted] on 20 September.

Future Items

1. Afghan Resolution

Senator Tsongas intends to re-introduce a resolution supporting the Afghan rebels next week.

25X1

3. Continuing Resolution

The Continuing Resolution is scheduled to come up in the House on Tuesday, 25 September.

4. Federal Officers Protective Act
